

Data Management Plan:

This proposal is essentially a method development proposal and as such will not produce data. However, if data are produced as a result of determining concentrations of trace elements in stored samples of seawater the results along with identifying variables will be submitted to the US BCO-DMO data assembly center in Woods Hole.